

YOUR WEDDING AT ORMLIE

Centrally located in the heart of Hawke's Bay, Ormlie is the elegant former home of Gertrude Smith, built in 1899 as a wedding present from her father Sir William Nelson.

Fully restored, Ormlie's old world charm fuses contemporary food and modern day comfort to offer the perfect wedding location.

Guests are transported into another world as they enter the grounds via a sweeping driveway, canopied by 100 year old notable trees. The historic lodge is nestled amongst an English-style garden with perfectly manicured lawns. Whilst you mark your memorable day with photos in and around Ormlie's glorious surrounds, your guests can relax, enjoying canapes and drinks, in a musical wonderland.

Ormlie's elegant and versatile ballroom features french doors opening to a private courtyard in summer and an open fire through winter. Enjoy the company of up to 120 guests seated for dinner or up to 150 for cocktail receptions.

Prepare for your special day in one of six luxurious suites with modern amenities - four suites lead directly to a sun filled veranda to enjoy sweeping views over the gardens.

Breathe easy in the knowledge that our dedicated staff will provide impeccable and truly personalised service for your perfect day.
